Numb. 2078.

Tuesday, February 16. 1742.

Vienna, Feb. 7. N.S.

The following is a Tranſlation of the Letter ſent by the Queen of Hungary to her Miniſters at Foreign Courts (mention'd in our Paper of Friday laſt.)

Ary-Thereſa, by the Grace of God Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, Archdutcheſs of Auſtria, &c. &c.

On the 1ſt inſtant a Courier arriv'd here from the Elector of Mentz, who repair'd immediately to the Houſe of the Count de Sintzendorf, Great Chancellor of our Court, and deliver'd to him two Letters ſeal'd, one of which was directed to us, and the other to the Regiſter of the Latin Diſpatches of the Chancellor's Office: But both the Letters were without a Cover.

'Tis eaſy to imagine how great was our Surprize, when we were inform'd of a Proceeding in all its Circumſtances ſo extraordinary. 'Tis a hard Matter to gueſs at the Reaſon why the Courier did not deliver the Letter ſuperſcribed to the Regiſter with his own Hands, and why it was to paſs thro' the Hands of the Great Chancellor; unleſs it had been previouſly determin'd to be guilty of Indiſcretion to the laſt Degree.

'The Management of the Letter directed to us has been alſo very indecent; for ſurely never did any Letter come in this Manner to a Crown'd Head, and it is manifeſtly contrary to what is generally obſerv'd in all Courts; and if ſometimes it has happen'd that there has not been ſo much Nicety uſed, as previouſly to demand a Copy of the Letter, it has only been when the Times, and Circumſtances of Affairs, could diſpenſe with ſuch a Formality, without making it a Precedent for the future, or rendering ſuch Demand illegal at another Time. Nobody can be ignorant that the preſent Juncture is worthy of Circumſpection, and that by conſequence ſuch a Proceeding cannot but give us Umbrage; but even tho' all this were to be excus'd, certain it is, that the Delivery of a Letter in this Manner by a Courier, to a Queen in the Capital City of her Reſidence, is a Thing that was never known before.

'All the Rules of Diſcretion and Civility which Crown'd Heads owe to one another, or rather to themſelves, not only in Times of Peace but in open War, are thereby violated. The Affront put upon us to-day, may be offer'd to another to-morrow; therefore it concerns all, and even our Enemies themſelves, to diſapprove ſo indecent a Proceeding.

'That we are very much offended at it, is what we can't diſſemble; the rather, becauſe it is very well known to the whole Empire, and every-where beſides, that the Elector of Mentz and his Family are oblig'd to his late Imperial Majeſty for that Archbiſhoprick.

'The Thing appear'd to us at firſt ſo incredible, that by our Order the Courier was examin'd ſeveral Times, to know if there had been no Miſtake committed on his Side? But he perſiſted in it, that he deliver'd thoſe Letters in the Manner he did, by expreſs Order.

'Tho' we have for a long Time been accuſtom'd to the moſt unjuſt and violent Treatment, and to bear it with the greateſt Diſcretion and Moderation; and tho' we never thought of deviating from this Rule in the leaſt Tittle, yet we cannot give up an Article which we owe to our high Birth and Quality.

'For this Reaſon we have order'd the two Letters to be return'd to the Courier, leaving it to his Choice to deliver to the Regiſter the Letter to him directed; and we ſhall never fail to give a proper and immediate Anſwer to all Letters that ſhall be deliver'd to us in a due Manner.

'Mean time, we think we have already made it ſufficiently plain, that the Election of the Emperor, and every Thing thereto appertaining, is illegal and null: Nevertheleſs, to convince the whole World that we are not and never ſhall be the Cauſe of the infinite and irreparable Calamities which overwhelm our dear Country of Germany, and indeed all Europe, we declare once for all in the moſt ſolemn Manner, that tho' Heaven begins viſibly to bleſs our Arms, yet we are inclin'd to put an End to all thoſe Calamities without delay; provided our Enemies will on their Part conſent to what is manifeſtly juſt and reaſonable, conformable to the Conſtitutions of the Empire, and founded upon Treaties, Guaranties, and the moſt ſolemn Oaths. You are to publiſh this where-ever it ſhall be neceſſary. And we are, &c.'

Done at Vienna, Feb. 2.

Francfort, Feb. 3. O.S. 'A particular Account of the grand Ceremony we ſaw here the Day before Yeſterday, would be very tedious both to the Writer and the Reader. I ſhall therefore only take notice, That the Emperor was receiv'd at the Cathedral by the Chiefs of the Embaſſies from the ſeveral Electors, and 100 Cannon were diſcharg'd round the Town, as they were a ſecond time after the Ceremony, which laſted three Hours. When the Emperor was conducted to the Townhouſe the Electors Firſt Miniſters began the Proceſſion, and were followed by the Count de Papenheim Hereditary Marſhal of the Empire, who carried the Sword of State. Then came the Emperor under a Canopy adorn'd with Silver Fringe, and the Imperial Eagle embroidered in Black and borne by Ten of the Deputies of the City Council. The Emperor walk'd with the Imperial Crown on his Head, ſupported by the Electors of Mentz and and Cologne. While he ſhew'd himſelf at the Windows to the Populace, who made the Air ring with their Acclamations, the Count de Papenheim came on Horſeback in his Robes of Ceremony, and filling a Silver Meaſure with Oats he carried it into the Hall, after which the reſt of the Oats were left to the Populace. Then the chief Miniſter of the Elector Palatine's Embaſſy took a Plate of Roaſt-beef and carried it to the Emperor's Table, after which the reſt of it was alſo left to be ſcrambled for. The Chief of the Brandenbourg Embaſſy-fetch'd ſome Water, and carried it to the Emperor's Table; and the Count de Stolberg a Plenipotentiary of the Elector of Hanover, who is Archtreaſurer of the Empire, ſcatter'd both Gold and Silver Species among the Populace. All this time two Fountains ran, one with White and the other with Red. And about ſix in the Evening there was another Diſcharge of 100 Guns.

The only ſhort and infallible Cure

For that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the higheſt and moſt inveterate Degree, or of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation or the leaſt Purging, which by an unaccountable Miſtake is generally adviſed, although always found rather to increaſe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble, Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, do at once drive at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and entirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced; for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters or any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inaſmuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they alſo aſſuredly and immediately cure the Green-ſickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in Young or old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, (which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diſeaſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and aſſoon as taken, make the Pulſes pleaſantly Lighſome, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſomuch fam'd and pleaſant Chymical Drops have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be ſure to have the Right, which by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Poſts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Theſe are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for external Uſe, which have been ſold with ſo much Succeſs for the Good of Mankind above Thirty Years laſt paſt, for the Cure of are removed from the Minories, where they have been ſold for the Author, ſo long, and are now ſold only at Mr Sandwell's Toyſhop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's Bury in the Poultry, at 5s. the Parcel, with printed Directions given with them.

Theſe two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themſelves will manifeſt in two or three Days uſing, having by their admirable and even aſtoniſhing Succeſs, gained the Reputation they ſo juſtly deſerve, both in City and Country, after wearing Truſſes for many Years to no Purpoſe.

For by the Bleſſing of God, they make a perfect Cure, either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a ſmall Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient; one Parcel is generally ſufficient for a compleat Cure, eſpecially on a young Perſon.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occaſioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all ſuch unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Truſſes.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cures of Perſons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, to grown Perſons of 60 Years or upwards; but that People are naturally averſe to let it be known, that they ever had ſuch an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sandwell can ſatisfy any Inquirer of the Validity of what is here ſaid, tho' he has not had ſuch large Knowledge, by reaſon of the ſhort Time he has ſold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are now, for good Reaſons, removed.

No Letters received except Poſt paid.
